The future of learning
starts here.

The advantage: unmatched flexibility.

The students define the beginning and the intensity of their studies themselves. The program can be adjusted constantly to meet private and work related needs.

Highest quality of the programs.

More than 60 reputable professors from Universities in five continents (IESE Management School, University of St. Gallen, IIM Bangalore and Ahmedabad, Universidad de Chile, ESB Reutlingen) guarantee highest quality of seminars and programs.

State of the art learning platform.

Educatis developed its own learning management system eCampus, a landmark in distance learning software.
